what we have left
undone.

Reading
Acts 2.22-24, 36-end

Summer Term Eucharist - 2010
'Serving others, growing together, living life to the full.'

"People of Israel, listen to these words: Jesus from Nazareth was a very special man. God clearly showed this to you by the miracles, wonders, and signs he did through Jesus. You all know this, because it happened right here among you.

Summer Term Eucharist - 2010
'Serving others, growing together, living life to the full.'

13

Jesus was given to you, and with the help of those who don't know the law, you put him to death by nailing him to a cross.

Summer Term Eucharist - 2010
'Serving others, growing together, living life to the full.'

14

But this was God's plan which he had made long ago; he knew all this would happen. God raised Jesus from the dead and set him free from the pain of death, because death could not hold him.

"So, all the people of Israel should know this truly: God has made Jesus — the man you nailed to the cross — both Lord and Christ."

When the people heard this, they felt guilty and asked Peter and the other apostles, "What shall we do?"

Summer Term Eucharist - 2010

Peter said to them, "Change your hearts and lives and be baptized, each one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. This promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away. It is for everyone the Lord our God calls to himself."

17

Peter warned them with many other words. He begged them, "Save yourselves from the evil of today's people!" Then those people who accepted what Peter said were baptized. About three thousand people were added to the number of believers that day.

They spent their time learning the apostles' teaching, sharing, breaking bread, and praying together.

The apostles were doing many miracles and signs, and everyone felt great respect for God. All the believers were together and shared everything.

19

They would sell their land and the things they owned and then divide the money and give it to anyone who needed it.

The believers met together in the Temple every day. They ate together in their homes, happy to share their food with joyful hearts.

20

They praised God and were liked by all the people. Every day the Lord added those who were being saved to the group of believers.

26

Through your Son,
you made us
and the whole universe.

Summer Term Eucharist - 2010

27

Your Holy Spirit came to Mary,
and Jesus was born as one of us.
When his time had come,
he suffered and died on the cross,
to save us from our sins.
He broke the chains of death,
and returned to you in glory

28

You send your Spirit
to bring new life to the world,
and fill us with power from on high.

29

And so we join on earth
with saints and angels in heaven
to praise your name and sing:
Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth
are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Father, on the night
before he died,
Jesus had a meal
with his friends.

Summer Term Eucharist - 2010
'Serving others, growing together, living life to the full.'

31

He took the bread,
and thanked you.
He broke it,
gave it to them and said:
Take this and eat it;
this is my body, given for you.

'Serving others, growing together, living life to the full.'

32

After the meal,
Jesus took the cup of wine.

gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you.
This is my blood,
the new covenant of God's love.
Do this to remember me.

we bring before you
may be for us
Christ's body and his blood.

Summer Term Eucharist - 2010
'Serving others, growing together, living life to the full.'

35

Pour your Spirit on us that we may live as children of the peace of the earth,

and wait for Jesus
to come in glory.
